SERVICES AT A GLANCE

JCDH cares about your experience and satisfaction when visiting our clinics. You may receive a patient satisfaction survey following your visit. We welcome your feedback.

CENTRAL HEALTH CENTER
1400 6th Avenue South
Birmingham, AL 35233
Child Health, Immunizations, Family Planning, Sexual Health, Tuberculosis, Adult Immunization, International Travel, PrEP, HepC, Dental, WIC, Social Services, Medicaid, Vital Records

EASTERN HEALTH CENTER
601 West Boulevard, Roebuck, AL 35206
Child Health, Immunizations, Family Planning, Sexual Health, Dental, WIC, Social Services

WESTERN HEALTH CENTER
631 Bessemer Super Highway
Midfield, AL 35228
Child Health, Immunizations, Family Planning, Sexual Health, Dental, WIC, Social Services

Guide to Clinical Services

Meeting Your Health Care Needs
For information about our clinics and to make appointments for your medical visits call our JCDH Call Center at (205) 588-5234 Monday – Friday between 7:00 am and 4:30 pm. Appointments are available beginning at 7:45 am.

Portal Information:
Your health matters! Access lab results, view and make appointments, request a prescription refill, send provider a message, or pay bill using the JCDH Portal at www.jcdh.org/myhealth.

To see our notice of Privacy Practice and Nondiscrimination Policy visit www.jcdh.org

Stay Connected:
@jeffersoncountydepartmentofhealth
@jcdhtweets
@jcdh_airquality
jcdh.org
Primary health care, including routine exams and sick visits, is provided for from Day One works to support healthy pregnancies from the first trimester to infants and children up to the age of 5 years.

Tuberculosis (TB) testing, preventive and treatment medication, disease counseling, preventative medication, and immunizations are provided to persons traveling to other countries. PrEP is a medication that can be taken once daily, and it greatly reduces your chances of acquiring HIV.

The Hepatitis C Clinic is for persons who have been diagnosed with Hepatitis C who may need treatment. Hepatitis C can be cured with new medications.

Health counseling, preventative medication, and immunizations are provided to patients traveling to other countries. Call (205) 930-1028 to make an appointment.

PrEP is a medication that can be taken once daily, and it greatly reduces your chances of acquiring HIV.

Hepatitis C is cured with new medications.

The WIC Program provides nutrition education, breastfeeding support, and healthy foods to pregnant women, women who delivered a baby within the last six months, women who are breastfeeding a baby less than one year old, and to infants and children up to the age of 5 years.

WIC services are available to all Alabama residents meeting income eligibility and program guidelines.

WIC services are available at all JCDH Health Centers. To schedule an appointment, call (205) 558-2144.

Interpretation and translation services for JCDH patients are provided at all JCDH Health Centers through face-to-face interpreters or the phone-based Language Line. Interpretation and translation services are also offered for other JCDH programs. American Sign Language interpretation services are available at all health center locations by video or upon request for a live ASL interpreter.

Workers with the Alabama Medicaid Agency are available to help patients in obtaining Medicaid benefits at the Central and Eastern locations.

American Sign Language interpretation services are available at all health center locations by video or upon request for a live ASL interpreter.

JCDH health centers are open on non-holidays, Monday through Friday from 7:45 am until 4:30 pm. After hours on-call services are available for JCDH patients by calling (205) 588-5234. A sliding fee schedule applies to many services and is available for Jefferson County residents who qualify. For more information call (205) 588-5234.